About Odeur Studios

A brief history of Odeur

Odeur was founded by Art director and Designer Petter Hollström in Stockholm in 2006 as a brand experiment. By replacing the traditional word-based logotype with a brand specific scent that is infused in the garments, Odeur was able to become the label with a non-visual logotype. The scent is described as white, clean and light. The triangular shape often used to brand the collection represents the construction of the scent – with a base note, middle note and top note.

The collections are developed drawing from a wide range of inspirations. Elements incorporated are always present in our direct surroundings, including musical, contemporary art, film and architectural references. Odeur embraces such open interaction through its uni-sex and multidisciplinary approach towards design.

Today Odeur is designed by Petter Hollström and Gorjan Lauseger and has spread to over 20 countries, selling clothing, jeans, outerwear, footwear and accessories. From 2013, the newly conceived, effortlessly clean quality accessory line Odeur Artefacts, have been added to the brands portfolio.

Odeur Studios

A/W'16 — 'Silent/Shout'

Collection introduction

This one turns. Sways if you will. Whatever once seemed faded always comes back to us. Life; a unique string of dynamic encounters. Opinions might differ, yet we all hop aboard this daily carousel as equals. Hierarchy merely is a concept, once stripped away it gives way to waves of empathy and societal perspective. To each their own, united only by the curious unpredictability of human nature. Step back and reflect, compose yourself, exhale and reach out. In the silence, we need to be reminded without shouts.

AW16 by Odeur Studios is a careful assessment of tactility, layering and sartorial proportions. The resulting silhouette is one subservient to winter's cool grasp, evoking a confident sense of self. Cropped tech-bombers are paired with lush wide elongated bottoms, stern long blazers feature over soft kimono shirts, a belted overcoat is paired with sleek drop crotch pants and breezy jersey tops billow freely underneath structured hooded jackets. Balance can be found in the interplay of lengths, dimensions and witty flow of the garments. This functional layered look, enables wearers to freely add or strip away items, adding onto the collection's interactive overall feel.

Embossed wordings, subtle ton-sur-ton embroidery, graphic rectangle and circular appliqués further frame this societal message of enriched mutual understanding. The surface exterior is composed of fine jersey, lush wool, tapered neoprene, cashmere and technical shells. These are maintained in understated tones of black, white, hues of grey, only subtly broken by a dash of classic deep blue. Patterned element prints further underline this sense of fresh agility, fully aligned with the collection's curious nature.
